From the very first drawing of St. Jean Pied de Port, Marcia Shaver's absolutely exquisite and evocative artwork transported me right back.

Sarah Gaunt, Fellow Pilgrim,
Sydney, Australia

In her new book, The Artist's Journey: The Perfumed Pilgrim Tackles the Camino de Santiago, Marcia Shaver combines her passion for drawing and her love of travel. Readers are compelled to join Marcia and her well-chosen walking companion as they set a pace that permits time to draw and drink in the revitalizing countryside. During the 1,299,851 step pilgrimage across Spain, Marcia rediscovers the depths of her soul and allows it to shine forth in this exquisite account of her meaningful journey.

Marcia Shaver spent summers on family ranches in Eastern Oregon and developed a deep love for the West which she reveals in her art and writing. Fiercely independent, and comfortable in wide-open spaces, Marcia is able to meet any challenge head-on and win.

Marcia graduated from University of Oregon with a Bachelor of Science degree. She is married to her college sweetheart and they call Redmond, Washington home.
