

REVIEWS

The Artist's Journey instantly enthralled me with the journey of two women trekking the Camino de Santiago. Fascinating descriptions of the people and places along their path enliven recounts of the history of the region. The author's sense of humor comes through wonderfully, and I found myself wanting to be there to share their adventure. Inspiring read with awesome artwork!

Shirley Enebrad, Independent TV Producer,
Author, Over the Rainbow Bridge

After reading The Artist's Journey, you will want to put on hiking boots, grab a backpack, and travel the road to Santiago de Compastela. Inspiring, authentic, and extremely entertaining, the book takes you on a journey of the heart, feet, and soul with memorable characters, feasts, challenges, and triumphs.

Paula Russell,
Time of Your Life Tours

From the very first drawing of St. Jean Pied de Port, Marcia Shaver's absolutely exquisite and evocative artwork transported me right back.

Sarah Gaunt, fellow pilgrim,
Sidney, Australia

Adventure with Marcia Shaver as her artistic eye brings to life this famous pilgrimage. Her inspiring tale, enhanced with beautiful ink drawings, begins with jitters and ends with gratitude. She writes with warmth and awe of the people she encounters and daily events that repeatedly exceed her wildest expectations.

Wendy Platt, Book Buyer
Wide World Books and Maps